BEHAVIOURAL CODE:

FH International promotes responsibilities, respect, civility and academic excellence in a safe learning and teaching environment. FH International has developed a Code of Conduct on factors like behavior and attendance that is used to resolve any potential issues. We expect all of our students to attend all their classes and be respectful in all their words and actions. Consequences for failure to follow these policies will result in interventions by the Principal and/or other staff. For more information, please refer to the Student Handbook or ask the staff for Policy details, but contained here are two excerpts from the Code of Conduct referencing attendance and behavior:

Attendance:

*PLEASE NOTE: According to the Government of Canada: "students must enroll ... and ... pursue studies in Canada. Failure to do so could lead to removal from Canada." - Effective as of July 1, 2014. Students are required to attend all their classes and communicate with their teachers and the school should there be any acceptable reasons for students to be absent. Absences are carefully monitored and students who fail to meet this set of criteria will face discipline and interventions by the Principal and/or Attendance Counselors.

Behavior:

Students are required to follow all aspects of the Code of Conduct, contained in the Student Handbook as well as the Policy documents of FH International. Everyone, including students, parents or guardians, teachers and other staff members are expected to adhere to the Code of Conduct at FH International, whether they are on school property, on school buses or at school-authorized events or activities. All members of the school community at FH are to be treated with respect and dignity, especially persons in positions of authority. They are expected to use non-violent means to resolve conflict. Physically aggressive behavior is unacceptable. Things like alcohol and illegal drug use, insults, disrespect and other hurtful acts disrupt learning and teaching in a school community. At FH International, we all have a responsibility to maintain an environment where conflicts and differences can be addressed in a manner characterized by respect and civility.

We understand and agree to the above FH International High School International Student Programs general release/waiver and behavior code.
